

COMMITMENT QUOTES

Until one is committed, there is hesitancy, the chance to draw back, always ineffectiveness.

Concerning all acts of initiative (and creation), there is one elementary truth the ignorance of which kills countless ideas and splendid plans: that the moment one definitely commits oneself, the providence moves too.

A whole stream of events issues from the decision, raising in one's favor all manner of unforeseen incidents, meetings and material assistance, which no man could have dreamt would have come his way. I learned a deep respect for one of Goethe's couplets:

Whatever you can do or dream you can, begin it.
Boldness has genius, power and magic in it!

W. H. Murray in The Scottish Himalaya Expedition, 1951

There's a difference between knowing the path and walking the path. - Morpheus, The Matrix

You need to make a commitment, and once you make it, then life will give you some answers. - Les Brown

Our greatest glory is not in never falling, but in rising every time we fall. - Confucius

If your energy is as boundless as your ambition, total commitment may be a way of life you should seriously consider. - Joyce Brothers

There's a difference between interest and commitment. When you're interested in doing something, you do it only when circumstance permit. When you're committed to something, you accept no excuses, only results. - unknown

Commitment turns a promise into reality with words that speak boldly of your intentions and actions that speak louder than words. - Steve Brunkhorst

Only one who devotes himself to a cause with his whole strength and soul can be a true master. For this reason mastery demands all of a person. - Albert Einstein

It was Character that got us out of bed, Commitment that moved us into action, and discipline that enabled us to follow through. - Zig Ziglar

Commitment means that it is possible for a man to yield the nerve center of his consent to a purpose or cause, a movement or an ideal, which may be more important to him than whether he lives or dies. - Howard Thurman

A man who won't die for something is not fit to live. - Martin Luther King, Jr.

Commitment is the enemy of resistance, for it is the serious promise to press on, to get up, no matter how many times you are knocked down. - David McNally

In the realm of ideas, everything depends on enthusiasm - in the real world all rests on perseverance. - Johann Wolfgang von Goethe

The successful person has the habit of doing the things failures don't like to do. They don't like doing them either necessarily. But their disliking is subordinated to the strength of their purpose. - E. M. Gray

There's no scarcity of opportunity to make a living at what you love. There is only a scarcity of resolve to make it happen. - Wayne Dyer

The most powerful weapon on earth is the human soul on fire. - Ferdinand Foch

Press On: Nothing in the world can take the place of persistence. Talent will not, nothing is more common than unsuccessful men with talent.

Genius will not; unrewarded genius is almost a proverb. Education will not; the world is full of educated derelicts. Persistence and determination alone are omnipotent. Calvin Coolidge

"Our deepest fear is not that we are inadequate. Our deepest fear is that we are powerful beyond measure. It is our light, not our darkness, that most frightens us. We ask ourselves, who am I to be brilliant, gorgeous, talented and fabulous?"

Actually, who are you not to be? You are a child of God. Your playing small doesn't serve the world. There's nothing enlightened about shrinking so that other people won't feel insecure around you.

We are born to make manifest the word of God that is within us. It's not just in some of us; it's in everyone. And as we let our own light shine, we give other people permission to do the same. As we are liberated from our fear, our presence automatically liberates others"

From "A Return to Love" by Marianne Williamson and quoted by Nelson Mandela in his 1994 Inaugural address
